JOB DESCRIPTION

RESPONSIBILITIES

The duties of staff covered by SNCT are outlined in Part 2: Section 2 of the SNCT handbook.

Subject to the policies and practice of the school and the Council, the duties of teachers are to:

(a) manage and organise classes through planning and preparing for teaching and learning;

(b) assess, record and report on the work of pupils' progress to inform a range of teaching and learning approaches;

(c) prepare pupils for examinations and where required, assist with their administration;

(d) contribute towards good order and the wider needs of the school;

(e) develop the school curriculum;

(f) contribute to the school and council planning and improvement processes, and

(g) maintain and develop knowledge and skills and contribute to the professional development of colleagues including probationary and student teachers.

KEY DUTIES ASSOCIATED WITH AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

Curriculum

It is expected that, within the guidelines of the authority and within each school's framework for the delivery of the curriculum, all teachers will undertake, individually, and collaboratively as appropriate, duties allocated from the following list:

- Teach assigned classes;
- Use a range of learning data including assessment to improve teaching, learning and attainment of pupils;

- Plan coherent and progressive teaching programmes that match pupils' needs and abilities;
- Use the results of assessment to evaluate, set and maintain targets to meet the seven design principles of Curriculum for Excellence;
- Report to parents/carers on pupil progress, and
- Contribute to the continuous cycle of improvement in your department/curricular area/stage/subject to improve outcomes for pupils.

Care and Welfare

It is expected that, within the guidelines of the authority, and within each school's framework for the care and welfare of pupils, all teachers will undertake, as appropriate, duties allocated from the following list:

- Maintain and promote positive behaviour and relationships;
- Placing the human rights and needs of every pupil at the centre of education;
- Adhere to child protection and safeguarding guidance;
- Promote pupils health and wellbeing in line with local and national guidance, and
- Contribute to effective transitions;
- Engage with relevant information to support the needs of pupils

Collegiate Duties

It is expected that all teachers will undertake, as appropriate, collegiate duties as contained in each school's Working Time Agreement.

Allocation of Duties

Teachers are accountable, through appropriate line managers, to the Head Teacher/Head of Establishment and, in turn, to the Director of Education.

Each teacher's line manager will determine the particular duties that they will carry out, which may vary, as required.

Teachers will undertake such other duties commensurate with the role as delegated by the line manager, Head Teacher/Head of Establishment or Director of Education.

Such duties must be capable of being undertaken within contractual time, consistent with Working Time Agreements and with due regard to workload.
