About Education Services

Schools

West Lothian Council's 68 primary schools, 13 secondary schools, 66 early learning and childcare settings and 5 additional support needs schools deliver Education Services to approximately 26,000 pupils and approximately 4,000 pre-school children, their parents/carers and the wider community.

Education is provided in terms of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980, the Standards in Scotland's Schools Etc. Act 2000, the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004, and the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014.

Schools work towards achieving the key strategic aims of the council. In particular, schools improve opportunities for young people, in partnership with centrally based officers, other Council services and external partners by:

- Raising standards of attainment and achievement for all
- Addressing the 'poverty related attainment gap' by ensuring equity of opportunity
- Improving employability and positive destinations for all school leavers
- Improving the learning environment
- Promoting equality of access to education
- Promoting citizenship and community engagement
- Promoting skills for lifelong learning including enterprise and creativity

Quality Improvement

The core function of the Quality Improvement Team (QIT) is to support and challenge school leaders in all schools to build capacity for self-evaluation that leads to improvement in the key areas of:

- Leadership and Management
- Learning Provision
- Success and Achievements

The team plays a key role in driving the implementation of the Raising Attainment Strategy, through effective quality improvement activities, which includes validated self-evaluation. The team also carries out individual and collective school attainment reviews, engaging school leaders in the forensic analysis of performance data to inform improvements and interventions.

The team have responsibility for parental involvement, co-ordinating freedom of information requests and the central complaints service. It also covers the letting of primary schools and halls, internal and external communication and the achievement of customer quality standards.

Adult Learning and CLD Youth Services

Adult Learning and CLD Youth Services have a strong focus on early intervention, prevention and tackling inequalities. These services empower people individually and collectively to make positive changes in their lives and in their communities; in line with corporate plan priorities 1, 3, 5, 6 and 7. Access to high quality learning, skills development, attainment and activities to promote health and wellbeing are important factors in determining life chances and can be a key to reducing inequality. Working together and with our partners CLD Youth Services and Adult Learning aim to ensure that disadvantaged communities have access to community learning and development support they need and help our most disadvantaged citizens develop the skills and support to participate fully in society.

Customer Participation
The service actively engages with customers and potential customers in the delivery and re-design of services to ensure that they are accessible and focused on their needs and preferences.

Council Strategies

Education Services is responsible for the development and implementation of the following corporate strategies; Raising Attainment Strategy, Active West Lothian Strategy.

Equality and Diversity

Equality is relevant to us all. Addressing discrimination and promoting equality are everyone's core business.

We want a West Lothian in which all people and communities have a say in their future and an equal opportunity for health, safety, education, fulfilling work, and a high quality of life. West Lothian Council has published equality outcomes, equality information on our workforce and our progress on mainstreaming equality. This reflects our commitment to promoting equality and eliminating discrimination as well as fulfilling our statutory duties under legislation.

The council recognises and values the diverse range of talents, skills, experience and perspectives that exist within society and believes that those qualities and attributes should also be reflected within the composition of its workforce, its employment practices and in the planning and delivery of its services.

Central to the council's Equality and Diversity agenda, is the prevention of discrimination, victimisation and harassment against service users and employees on any grounds, but particularly in relation to the following protected characteristics:

- age;
- disability;
- sex (gender)
- gender reassignment;
- marriage and civil partnership;
- pregnancy and maternity;
- race;
- religion or belief;
- sexual orientation

In addition, prevention of discrimination, victimisation and harassment in relation to gender identity, gender expression, non-binary identities, language, social origin, employment status, political belief, trade union membership or activity, or responsibility for dependants is key to ensuring we have a diverse and inclusive workforce that reflects the communities we serve.

West Lothian Council is a Stonewall Diversity Champion and is committed to advancing LGBT equality and this is reflective in all our policies which are inclusive of all protected characteristics.
